To Pawalika, 10/10/26, 12:00 am ♥

Happiest Birthday ever to the love of my life! I don't know how long this will be or if I will be able to encapsulate everything that I want to encapsulate here. I am notoriously bad at expressing. So here goes Nothing.

I wish I got to give you these letters in a cute little envelope written in beautiful handwriting and cursive on white paper with little pink hearts! The reason I wanna do that is simple. Well, I'm getting ahead of myself, I have so much more to write! I wanted to gift you pretty things, cook for you, take you away on a surprise trip to the mountains. May even italy. I wanted to spend the night watching stars twinkle by the seaside I wanted you to see fireworks. I wanted to throw you a surprise party with all our friends, with everyone you love. I wanted to do so many things and yet all I will have is this one letter in a notebook. I will make it upto you. This Year itself in ways you can't even imagine. I promise

The reason I wanted to do So many things is Simple. Tomorrow is the most Special day in the world. I want you to feel every bit of Special that you are. I want you to be ~~the~~ the happiest person in the whole wide world

Because You deserve to feel like youre the happiest person in the world. Tomorrow will always be the most special day in my world. Tomorrow is when you were born. You are so so perfect. From your kid heart to your Cute puffed up Cheeks when you get angry. From that mischevious twinkle in your eyes to how your face melts when you see a puppy. From the way you giggle to the way you smile. You absolutely are perfect. Youre my favourite human being ever. I have been searching for you all my life and now that I've found you, all I wanna do is make you feel as loved for and as special as you've made me feel. I love how pretty you are. From the way your eyes sparkle with golden rings to your little moles above your lip and under your eye to your radiant smile that can light up a Cold winter Night. I love your hair and their Scent when I hug you. I love how your Cheeks are such beautiful little cute rounds of joy. I love your enthusiasm, your Curiosity and this beautiful burning Spark to just live life to it's fullest. You inspire me with your will to not just exist but actually live. To tour the whole wide world, go on adventures and experience all that life has to offer. I admire how strong willed you are. Always facing everything the world throws at you and never letting it down. Always fighting to never let anything or anyone bring you down. I am inspired by your strength and I want you to know that you can be open and honest with me. Let me help you and lend ~~those~~ my shoulder for when you need it. Youve faced so much. Yet your strength has always persisted. Sometimes your clash with your family due to your strong will but never let love be affected by it and I think that's beautiful. You like Cute things yes, You like Cars and beautiful houses but I think there's one thing that you value and like above all. Fats experiences. I promise to make sure that every birthday I'm not gonna gift you just things but am gonna gift You experiences. Be it a random trip to Italy or a Spontaneous run and drive to the hills on a night doing nothing but having late night Conversations with takeaway food in the Car. I promise to go to the Empire State building and watch the sun set on manhattan with you, to cross over to the locks on that bridge in scout by the river, to live in a small french town, to drive around the Spanish Countryside, to go and have a roadtrip in italy and having pizza in naples on a Vespa, to going to Tokyo and to Hokkido and the Crystal waters of Vietnam and Bali to an F1 race in Malaysia to a food tour in Singapore, to explore Sydney and Brisbane, to live in New Zealand and driving on that long fast german highway and going on Masai Mara, having deepdish in Chicago, driving from LA to San francisco to watching football games in portugal and steam baths in Turkey and & roaming around History in greece, partying in Sao Paolo and fishing in bolivia and living in Chongking and Shanghai. I promise you everything.

But the greatest adventure will be living and building a home and life with you. Visiting your parents, going on trips with your brother and nana, introducing you to my grandparents and mom and dad and making you "One of the Cousins" and earning the approval of your mom and nod of satisfaction of your dad that her daughter is in good hands who can protect her and look after her, care for her and respect her.

Youve made me grow as a person in ways I cannot even describe. You have given me more than just a will to live and reason to survive. No, I have grown as a person.

I respect you so so much and I will always continue to do so. Your strong fierce independence is awe inspiring. We will always have each other as equals. As friends first and foremost. I'll reiterate my and your emotional sanity. Spike, exams. Mom, dad, disagreements, and ka tension. I wonder if you always were this strong. But this next year is gonna be full of trials too. Tough days. It won't be easy. But I know if anyone can take it through it is you. Write a letter to your future self. I'm not kidding write one every week and put it in a box. We will read them after opening the box in a year. We will see how far we've come and your future self will be thanking you. You know what my fear is? My biggest fear?
